

Los Jardines de Zee Wang Zu

(Zee Wang Zu's Gardens)

Storyline

Milleniums ago the Chinese Empire was ruled by Zee Wang Zu, a merciless emperor from the 2nd Chinese Dynasty that took his empire to the limits of misery, injustice and extreme poverty.

In those chaotic times it existed a town in China that never get into wars, famine or hardship. The Emperor wanting to know the reasons, sent his most wise ministers in order them to discover the secret of that prosperity, so he can lead the destiny of his empire in a more accurate way.

The secret was unveiled and the ambitious Emperor thought that the solution of all his government troubles was certainly there: that town was protected by the Holy Dragon of Snow, who, once revealed, was tempted by the evil Emperor for him to change the destiny of the entire empire.

But as the Dragon denied to help him, the angry Emperor shut the Dragon in the gardens of the imperial palace, known as the Gardens of Doom, to keep the Dragon there for all eternity.

The destiny of all villagers from that town was the worst of all, as their souls were condemned to wander forever into the valley of the damned until the Holy Dragon finds the ten magical seals hidden into every zone of the Zee Wang Zu's Gardens.
